

What percentage of cars are electrified in Chile?

As of February 2025, 8.7% of light and medium vehicle sales in Chile were electrified units, compared to just 1.2% in 2018. Non-plug-in vehicles make up 74% of this share, with plug-ins accounting for 26%. Overall, gasoline vehicles now represent 65% of the market and diesel 26.3%, signaling steady progress in the transition toward electrification.

How many fully electric cars were sold in Chile in 2023?

According to figures from the National Automotive Association of Chile (ANAC), 1,588 fully electric cars were sold in 2023, representing a 22% increase compared to 2022. The trend is expected to continue rising, as ANAC sources indicate that in April 2024, 877 fully electric cars were sold compared to 549 units in April 2023.

Does Chile have a future in electric mobility?

Chile is making major strides in electric mobility, recording unprecedented growth in charging infrastructure and electrified vehicle sales during the first two months of 2025.

How EV charging works in Chile?

The Energy Ministry regulates the interoperability of EV charging systems to ensure smooth access of EV users to the charging network. Chile has multiple charging corridors, including Voltex covering 23 charging stations along 435 miles in the south and central regions. Chile aims to electrify high-mileage vehicles.

Chile has multiple charging corridors, including Voltex covering 23 charging stations along 435 miles in the south and central regions. Vehicle Incentives Chile aims to electrify high-mileage vehicles. My ...

Key View: In 2025, we forecast that passenger EV sales in Chile will rise by 73.8% y-o-y to 9,733 units, driven by expanding EV infrastructure and growing consumer interest in sustainable ...

Electromobility in Chile is experiencing rapid growth, driven by rising vehicle sales and the country's commitment to sustainable practices. Spanish version Portuguese version Not only ...

In Chile Electric Vehicle Market, Government incentives, subsidies, and supportive policies for electric vehicles can significantly

Chile is making major strides in electric mobility, recording unprecedented growth in charging infrastructure and electrified vehicle sales during the first two months of 2025.

According to figures from the National Automotive Association of Chile (ANAC), 1,588 fully electric cars were sold in 2023, representing a 22% increase compared to 2022. The trend is expected to ...

Electric vehicles are already exempt from Chile's "green tax", which penalises emissions. Drivers of electric or hybrid vehicles, or any vehicle deemed "zero-emissions" by the ...

Furthermore, Copec and Tesla have stated their intention to create an open and interoperable network to support the adoption of electric vehicles in Chile. Copec CEO Arturo Natho ...

Interact Analysis produces annual reports on on-road commercial vehicles, off-road vehicles and components. All the reports are focused on electric vehicles (including hydrogen and hybrids). New ...

Despite regional delays, Chile's electric vehicle (EV) market has shown positive progress, with exponential growth in cumulative sales fuelled by recent public policies like the fuel ...

Web: <https://kopbeenskloof.co.za>

