

The Paris Agreement was negotiated by 196 parties at the 2015 United Nations Climate Change Conference near Paris, France. As of January 2026, 194 ...

Authoritative information on the status of the Paris Agreement, including information on signatories to the Agreement, ratification and entry into force, is provided by the Depositary, through the United Nations ...

This Agreement, in enhancing the implementation of the Convention, including its objective, aims to strengthen the global response to the threat of climate change, in the context of sustainable ...

It is a legally binding treaty adopted by 195 countries at the climate change conference in Paris in 2015 (known as COP 21). The main goal of the agreement is to cut global greenhouse gases ...

Paris Agreement, international treaty, named for the city of Paris, ...

In 2012, Paris carried out one of the first studies of a territory's vulnerabilities and strengths in the face of climate change, highlighting the significant environmental, social and economic risks that it might ...

The 2025 BTR1 Synthesis Report presents initial insights into diverse national efforts to implement the Paris Agreement across mitigation, adaptation, and support.

Background The Paris Agreement is a legally binding international treaty adopted more than a decade ago by 196 parties aimed at combating climate change by pursuing efforts to limit ...

This booklet of the Paris Agreement has been published by the UNFCCC secretariat for ease of reference and as a "souvenir" edition to commemorate its early entry into force. For ease of ...

The Paris Agreement is an international climate treaty negotiated under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change ...

To tackle climate change and its negative impacts, world leaders at the UN Climate Change Conference (COP21) in Paris reached a breakthrough ...

Collectively, the three post-2015 agendas for action - the Paris Agreement, the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction - provide the ...

Nationally determined contributions (NDCs) are at the heart of the Paris Agreement and the achievement of its long-term goals. NDCs embody efforts by each country to reduce national ...

Document type Publications Conference Paris Climate Change Conference - November 2015 Session COP 21
Author

Despite these alarming trends, UN Secretary-General António Guterres said that the Paris Agreement goals are still achievable and called on world leaders to step up their efforts in ...

In Paris in 2015, almost 200 countries signed a landmark agreement designed to avoid the worst consequences of climate change.

Web: <https://kopbeenskloof.co.za>

